BETH EL CONGREGATION
HIGH HOLIDAYS 5770 • 2009

BETH EL – THIS IS YOUR SYNAGOGUE.

Rosh Hashanah 5770

AT HOME

R*osh Hashanah*, like all Jewish holidays, is celebrated both in the synagogue and in the home. The mood of the holiday is joyous as we look forward to the opportunity to begin anew and celebrate the gift of another year of life. Rosh Hashanah can be enhanced in the home through your preparations and rituals. Customarily, the table is set with a white cloth (a symbol of purity and joy), candlesticks, wine, apples and honey and challot (usually round to symbolize a full, complete year). This year, Rosh Hashanah will begin on the evening of Friday, September 18 with candle lighting at home at 6:40 p.m.

◆ Lighting the candles – As we light the candles, we recite the following blessings to mark the beginning of the holiday and Shabbat:

Baruch ata Adonai, Elohaynu melech ha-olam, asher kid'shanu b'mitzvotav, v'tzevanu l'hadleek ner shel (Shabbat v'shel) yom tov.

Praised are You, Lord our God, Master of the universe, Who has sanctified us with His commandments and commanded us to light the (Sabbath and) Festival candles.

Baruch ata Adonai, Elohaynu melech ha-olam, she-hecheuanu, v'kee-y-manu, v'higeeyanu laz'man hazeh.

Praised are You, Lord our God, Master of the universe, Who has kept us in life, sustained us and enabled us to reach this season.

◆ Blessing of the children – It is a beautiful tradition for parents to bless their children before reciting Kiddush. Parents place their hands on each child's head and say the appropriate blessing:

For sons – Y'simcha Eloheem k'Efrayim v'k'Menashe.
May God make you as Ephraim and Menashe.

For daughters – Y'simech Eloheem k'Sarah, Rivka, Rachel, v'Leah.
May God make you as Sarah, Rebecca, Rachel and Leah.

For all children – May the Lord bless you and keep you. May the Lord's goodness shine on you and be gracious to you. May the Lord turn with favor to you and give you peace. Amen.

◆ The Kiddush for Shabbat and Yom Tov is recited over wine, followed by the Motzi, the blessing over the challah:

Baruch ata Adonai, Elohaynu melech ha-olam, bo-rei pe-ri ha-ga-fen.

Blessed are You, Lord our God, Master of the universe, Creator of the fruit of the vine.

Baruch ata Adonai, Elohaynu melech haolam, asher bachar banu mikol am, veromemanu mikol lashon, vekideshanu bemitzvotav. Vatitein lanu Adonai Eloheyntu be'ahava, et yom (haShabbat hazeh, v'et yom) Hazikaron hazeh, yom (zichron) teruah, (be'ahava) mikra kodesh, zeicher litziat Mitzrayim. Ki vanu vacharta ve'otanu kidashta mikol ha'amim, u'dvarcha emet v'kayam la'ad. Baruch ata Adonai, melech al kol ha'aretz, mikadeish (ha'Shabbat v) Yisrael v'Yom HaZikaron.

Blessed are You, Lord our God, Master of the universe, Who has chosen us from all people, exalted us above every tongue and sanctified us with Your mitzvot. With love, Lord our God, you have given us feasts of gladness and seasons of joy, this day of Shabbat and Rosh Hashanah, holy assemblies, recalling the Exodus from Egypt. For You have chosen us and You have sanctified us from all people, and in love and in favor have granted us the Festivals, in gladness and joy, as our heritage. Blessed are You Lord, our God, who hallows Israel and the festive seasons.

◆ On the first night of Rosh Hashanah, it is traditional to dip the challah in honey and recite the following prayer.

Y'hee ratzon milfanecha, Adonai, Elohaynu velohay avotaynu, She'tichadesh aleyntu shanah tovah u'metukah.

May it be Your will, Lord our God, and God of our ancestors, that the New Year be both good and sweet.

◆ On the second night of Rosh Hashanah, it is customary to eat a new fruit (mango, pomegranate, etc.) so that the She-hecheyanu prayer may be recited. However, the She-hecheyanu prayer may be recited even without eating a new fruit.

The traditional greetings for Rosh Hashanah are:

L'shanah Tova (May you enjoy a good year).

Shanah Tovah U'Metukah (May your new year be good and sweet).

Greetings

FROM THE RELIGIOUS SERVICES COMMITTEE

As we look to the upcoming High Holidays, the members of the Religious Services Committee would like to take this opportunity to wish the members of our Beth El family good health and much happiness in the coming New Year. We hope that our services will provide the spiritual regeneration each of us is seeking.

In order to provide our services for you, we urge you to please observe the following simple requests:

- ◆ Our worship services begin as scheduled, so please be prompt. We urge you to come early for Kol Nidre on Sunday, September 27 to avoid disrupting the service once we begin.
- ◆ Those who arrive late, and are not certain where their seats are located, are requested to consult an usher before proceeding to their seats as quickly and quietly as possible as others will be praying.
- ◆ Please keep all conversation with friends or family members while services are in progress to a minimum.
- ◆ Please do not congregate in the hallways, especially near the entrance and exits of the various services.
- ◆ Please remove your tallit before going into the restroom. After the conclusion of services, please return your tallit to the racks in the hallways.
- ◆ We urge all congregants, young and old, to remain during Yizkor (Memorial) Services to support those within our community who have lost loved ones. This will also give others an opportunity to recall the people who have shaped our lives.

Please Note:
High Holiday tickets will be mailed under separate cover during the week of August 31.

“WHAT TO DO IF”

It is a long-established part of our history that people are free to take unoccupied seats if they are available during services. This “musical chairs” style, while awkward at moments, is a time-honored tradition that enables us to welcome our children and also to welcome strangers. However, an equally cherished tradition is that, if you arrive and someone is occupying your seats, we graciously ask the people in your seats to change seats with no ill feelings on any side.

If you are one of those people who feel shy about asking someone to move, please have an usher do it for you; or, if you feel that it would be discomforting to have others move just for you to sit in “your seats,” then please don’t let yourself feel strange about occupying other unused seats. Most of our members take this attitude very comfortably, knowing that at Beth El we are less “territorial” and more “familial” than many other synagogues. We, in fact, tend to see this as a plus rather than a minus. It helps to keep the “Welcome” sign out rather than turning us into the kind of place where tickets are checked and everyone feels like a stranger. A little bit of warmth and understanding goes a long way.

Seating Dilemmas

Please Remember:
There are services when OPEN SEATING is in effect.
Thank you for your courtesy.

Selichot

THE HIGH HOLIDAYS BEGIN

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 9:00 P.M.

We hope that you will join us for an evening of reflection as we begin to prepare for the coming Days of Awe. The service, which is free and open to the public, will give congregants an opportunity to begin the repentance process leading up to Yom Kippur.

This meaningful and evocative musical setting of the Selichot service, composed by our own Cantor Thom King, will feature cellist Evan Drachman and the men of the Beth El Choir. A special treat for the evening will be the showing of a short film, "Advice and Dissent", a light-hearted look at the themes of vows, trust, and repentance.

Children

CHILDREN ARE ALWAYS WELCOME AT BETH EL!

Please bring your children to synagogue for the High Holidays! We are delighted to have them in the synagogue and especially want even the littlest ones in our midst for special moments, such as the blowing of the shofar on Rosh Hashanah, the reading of the Torah, etc. If the children become overly noisy, however, we would appreciate your taking them outside for a few minutes until they calm down. Thank you for your cooperation.

Mazon

MAZON ANNUAL YOM KIPPUR APPEAL

In the Haftorah on the morning of Yom Kippur, we read the words of Isaiah:

"If you offer your compassion to the hungry; and satisfy the famished creature; then shall your light shine in darkness; and your gloom shall be like noonday."

Our congregation joins with hundreds of other Mazon partner synagogues by calling upon our members to donate to Mazon the money saved by not eating on Yom Kippur. This way, those whose fast is not voluntary and will not end at sundown, the hungry, may be sustained.

Book Burial

BOOK BURIAL AT BETH EL MEMORIAL PARK

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 8

This year, the families participating in our chavurah chadasha program, accompanied by Rabbi Saroken, will be making a trip to the Beth El Memorial Park to tour our cemetery, learn about Jewish customs surrounding burial and to perform the special mitzvah of burying our "sacred objects" and "sacred books" that are beyond repair.

We invite you to participate in this mitzvah by bringing in any old and unusable Bibles, prayer books or other ritual objects that contain God's name. Please drop off any religious materials for burial at the main office between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. Thank you for joining us in the fulfillment of this mitzvah.

A PREVIEW OF BETH EL CONGREGATION'S ADULT EDUCATION PROGRAMS 2009-2010

By mid-September, all Beth El members will receive the annual Adult Education booklet in the mail publicizing a large number of Jewish learning opportunities offered by our congregation, many of which are free of charge or available for a nominal fee. Those few that are space-limited give members priority registration over affiliates and non-members.

Scheduling events on weekdays, evenings and Sundays takes into consideration our members' varied leisure-time availability. Read our 2009-2010 brochure very carefully and be sure to register early, since spaces fill quickly. Contact Rabbi David Greenspoon at david@bethelbalto.com or 410-484-0411 ext. 1402 for more information on any of the following stimulating programs:

◆ Ongoing classes (those with six or more sessions) take place on Monday mornings and evenings, Wednesday mornings, Saturday mornings, and Sundays. This year our new offerings include classes in Hebrew; how to read Torah and Haftarah; a new class titled, The Jewish Experience: Events and Ideas taught by Sandy Winters; The Monday Morning Mini-series with Rabbi Greenspoon; and Rogues, Scoundrels, and Leaders; Jewish Leadership Lessons from the Book of Judges with Rabbi Greenspoon on Wednesday mornings. Continuing classes include The Rabbi Jacob Agus Academy for Jewish Learning, our Monday night Mishnah study with the clergy, six monthly Jewish Short Stories series with Gail Lipsitz, A Guided Tour Through The Beth El Siddur with Rabbi Greenspoon, and our fabulous Saturday morning Torah study taught by our rabbis and Sandy Winters.

◆ Special programs and classes have been added to the calendar this year. Our Holy Dinner Series features four international cuisine Shabbat dinners at Beth El. A special lecture in memory of H. Allan Lispitz will serve as the prelude to our Rabbi Jacob Agus Academy of Jewish Learning. A full slate of programs and classes help us prepare for and enjoy the Jewish calendar celebrations.

Also, a unique and timely collaboration with Jewish Community Services will launch a new effort, The Helping Conversation Series, that promises to be a hugely important addition to our offerings.

◆ Our Lunch and Learn programming continues to expand as well. Joining our twice-monthly Downtown venue at Fedder and Garten and the monthly session in Towson at the Institute for Christian and Jewish Studies, Beth El Congregation becomes the latest address for our Pikesville Lunch and Learn. This program will feature the resources within the Beth El Congregation family, and will cover diverse and interesting contemporary topics.

◆ Adult Learning at Beth El continues to partner with other community institutions such as the Board of Rabbis Adult Institute of Jewish Studies, and programs with The Institute for Christian and Jewish Studies. Also, be sure to look out for information in The Voice and on the Beth El website as new programs and classes come up during the year.

We hope that you agree that when it comes to Adult Education, there is something for everyone at Beth El. Our classes start in October and will be in full swing in November. If you have any questions about our offerings or have suggestions for classes you'd like to see, please contact Rabbi David Greenspoon via e-mail at david@bethelbalto.com at (410) 484-0411 ext. 1402. We look forward to greeting you in Adult Education classes at Beth El!
